

Calling all African Caribbean Black Families & Caregivers!

Have you been a victim of the school-to-prison pipeline?

Have you experienced anti-Black racism within the education system?

Do you want to see positive changes in the education & justice system for Black families and youth?

We want to hear from you!

The Links to Justice Research & Advocacy Initiative is looking to engage with the Black community. Join us to share your stories, experiences, and recommendations.
