

Art and Everyday Life Program

Riverdale Hub is offering a 6-week program that will engage women who are marginalized, immigrants, and/or refugees in the arts virtually. The program will be held online, with support provided in accessing wifi and laptops if needed.

Who is this program for?

Anyone who identifies as a marginalized, immigrant, and/or refugee woman in Toronto and would like to learn more about the arts in Canada.

When are sessions?

Tuesdays and Thursdays from 1pm-3pm
(Program runs from August 3 - September 9, 2021)

How much does it cost?

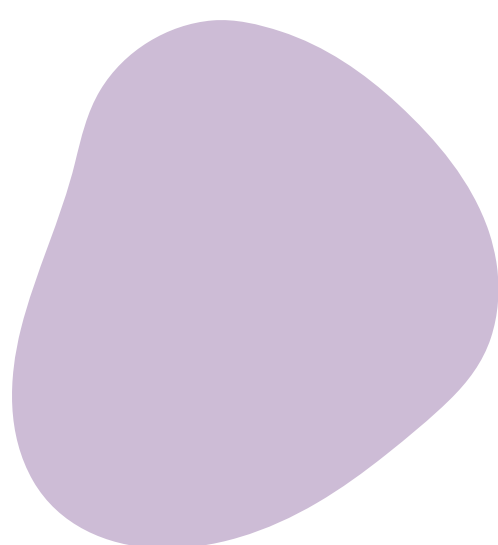

This program is free of charge

This program includes:

- Art-based activism workshops with Toronto collective Tea Base
- Zine-making workshops with artist Cleopatria Peterson
- Virtual tour of the Canadian Museum of Immigration in Halifax
- Artist talk with textile artist Gio Swaby
- Opportunities to connect virtually and create new meaning in your own personal approach to art!

How do I register?

Registration is available through this form

For more details, please contact...

Dallas Fellini
dallas@riverdalehub.ca

